

2021 Inspiration

Do not wait for the storm to pass

Rather put on your dancing shoes and dance in the rain.

RENTHEA Smit Brokers wish you a 2021 that will exceed your expectations, and deliver fruit in abundance.

2020 Still lingers like fresh dew from the night before, and the sun will spread out its rays on the passing days of 2021. Where it's not raining the sun will shine. Some days will be windy, others mild and pleasant. Certainly there will be days of severe storm. Each day will be the perfect day for somebody, according their day's schedule.

We might not know what tomorrow brings, but we surely have the facts of the 2020, the insight to adjust, and wisdom to apply the outcome in the best possible way. Seek the small flowers that will transform into a beautiful bouquet. As the bouquet withers, go out and fill your basket with fresh flowers.

RS Brokers identified new exciting opportunities in the professional insurance market, providing our clients the option of the best possible value added products. Facts and figures will soon be available, followed by quotations rolling out.

Living Waters In some situations God calms the storm, but in many other ways God calms His child to withstand the storm.
